CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE MAN INDICTED ON BANK ROBBERY CHARGES

LOUISVILLE, KY - A federal grand jury in Paducah returned an indictment against Jonifer Jerome Jackson, Jr., age 21, of Clarksville, Tennessee in Montgomery County, with taking money which was in the care, custody and control of a federally insured bank.

The Indictment charges that on November 21, 2006, Jackson, by force, violence and intimidation, took $2,436.00 in money belonging to and in the care, custody and control of the BB&T Bank, 15744 Fort Campbell Boulevard, Oak Grove, Kentucky. BB&T was a federally insured deposit corporation.

In the event of a conviction, the maximum potential penalties are 20 years imprisonment, a $250,000 fine, and supervised release for a period of 5 years. Jackson has also been indicted by a federal grand jury in Nashville, Tennessee for robbing a Clarksville Bank on March 1, 2006.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Michele Thielhorn and it was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Jackson is scheduled to appear for arraignment before the United States Magistrate Judge on September 12, 2007 at 1:30 p.m. in Paducah, Kentucky.
